Code of Conduct

Interscholastic athletic competition should demonstrate high standards of ethics and sportsmanship and promote the development of good character and other important life skills. The highest potential of sports is achieved when participants are committed to pursuing victory with honor according to six core principles: Trustworthiness, Respect, Responsibility, Fairness, Caring, and Good Citizenship (the “Six Pillars of Character”). The Code applies to all student-athletes involved in interscholastic sports in Arizona.

Parent Protocol Continued:

- ▣ Please wait 24 hours after a competition before you contact a coach.
- ▣ Topics that will not be addressed:
 - Playing time
 - Rank on team
 - Other players

Athletic Eligibility Information:

CUSD Academic Athletic Eligibility:

Students receiving an “F” in any class on a Progress Report, or Semester Report, will not be eligible to participate in AIA sanctioned events until they have improved their failing grade(s) to a “D” or better. After each official grading period, weekly grade checks may be completed on each subsequent Friday by the respective student. Ineligible students who have completed 5 days of study hall and have earned a passing grade in all of their failing classes will be eligible on the following Monday. Once a student regains eligibility, the student will remain eligible until the following progress report, or semester grade. Please contact the high school athletic office for further clarification.

Regaining Eligibility:

- ▣ Student must attend 5 consecutive Study Halls and/or Academic Enrichment
 - If a student misses a day, the ineligibility will continue and start over the following week
 - A student must attend 5 consecutive days of Study Hall even if grades are recovered before the end of the week
 - Athletic Eligibility Card is due on Friday, for eligibility Monday
- ▣ Acceptable Study Halls/Academic Enrichment
 - Go to a teacher/class the student failed
 - Go to a tutoring session
 - Go to a different teacher
 - Go to Athletic Study Hall (2:30-3:00pm) in the cafeteria
